Dear Madam/Sir,

This is an endorsement for Mr. Rav Pratap Singh. He is a PhD student at the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge. He is writing his PhD dissertation under my supervision.

I wish to confirm that I've read his essay 'International Taxation: The International Law Perspective'. The essay, as the title suggests, is an insight into International Taxation Law from the perspective of an International Lawyer. A more detailed form of the essay may be part of his eventual PhD dissertation. The essay is his original work and has been written entirely by him.

I wish him best of luck for the essay competition.

Regards,

Michael Waibel
